3 PINSCHER CLUB OF SANDIEGO, a California non-profit corporation ("DEFENDANT") and
4 DOES 1-50 alleges as follows:

JURISDICTIONAL ALLEGATIONS

6 1. PLAINTIFF is and at all times mentioned herein an individual residing in the

4 action filed in San Diego, California pursuant to Title 28 of the United States Code section
5 1400(a)&(b).

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

7 8. DEFENDANT is licensed by the American Kennel Club and is a chapter member
8 of the Doberman Pinscher Club of America. DEFENDANT'S primary mission "is to come to 9 the aid of Dobermans in need." To accomplish this goal, DEFENDANT educates the public
10 about the Doberman breed and runs its Doberman Rescue program.

11       9.       In or about 2002, PLAINTIFF joined DEFENDANT to help rescue Dobermans.
12 When PLAINTIFF reviewed DEFENDANT'S rescue website, he determined the 13 DEFENDANT'S website was grossly out of date.

14       10. PLAINTIFF attempted to help DEFENDANT'S web designer, Doug Brown,
15 modernize the website. However, Mr. Brown did not possess the knowledge to update
16 DEFENDANT'S website on his own. Thus, Mr. Brown resigned from his position and turned 17 over the operation of DEFENDANT'S website to PLAINTIFF.

18        11. In or about 2003, PLAINTIFF officially became DEFENDANT'S web designer.
19 PLAINTIFF completely overhauled the website. PLAINTIFF added videos, updated all the 20 existing information, ensured the website's information was always current, and began posting
21 stories and pictures of rescued Dobermans.

22       12. In or about 2005, PLAINTIFF created DOBERMANRESQ.COM so he could
23 rescue Dobermans on his own, without any influence from DEFENDANT. Thereafter,
24 DOBERMANRESQ.COM helped find good homes for hundreds of Dobermans.

25 13. In 2006, PLAINTIFF resigned as DEFENDANT'S webmaster and left the club.
26 However, out of a shared love to rescue Dobermans, PLAINTIFF continued to run
27 DOBERMANRESO.COM.

28 | //

1       14. After leaving the club in 2006, PLAINTIFF reached an agreement with
 2 DEFENDANT'S chairperson, Angie Gilbert, regarding photographs and rescue stories related
 3 to DEFENDANT. Since PLAINTIFF had a superior website and time to maintain it,
 4 DEFENDANT and PLAINTIFF agreed that DEFENDANT would provide PLAINTIFF with 5 information about rescued Dobermans. PLAINTIFF would transform the information into a 6 thoughtful story, which he posted alongside a picture of the Doberman onto 7 DOBERMANRESQ.COM. These stories helped increase internet traffic and made people aware
 8 of efforts to rescue Dobermans.

9       15. DEFENDANT also created a link to DOBERMANRESQ.COM on its site so
 10 people could view the rescued Dobermans. DEFENDANT referred people to 11 DOBERMANRESQ.COM in its monthly newsletter. A true and correct copy of this link is 12 attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

13       16. During this time, DEFENDANT'S board and club members were made aware of 14 the fact that DEFENDANT'S rescued Dobermans and their stories were listed on
 15 DOBERMANRESQ.COM and of the agreement in place with PLAINTIFF. They had no
 16 objection.

17       17. PLAINTIFF also listed donations made to DEFENDANT on 18 DOBERMANRESQ.COM. The donations could not be listed on DEFENDANT'S website
 19 because it did not have the capability to do so. Therefore, DEFENDANT allowed PLAINTIFF
 20 to list the contributions to ensure donors received proper recognition.

21       18. PLAINTIFF traveled around Southern California to obtain images for 22 DOBERMANRESQ.COM. PLAINTIFF took photographs and videos of Dobermans in need
 23 of new homes. PLAINTIFF then posted the images on DOBERMANRESQ.COM and created
 24 a story about each Doberman.

25       ///

26       ///

27       ///

28       ///

1       17. DOBERMANRESQ.COM allowed website visitors to upload images of
 2 Dobermans directly onto the site. By uploading photographs, users entered into a licensing
 3 agreement granting PLAINTIFF non-exclusive rights to use the photographs (hereinafter 4 referred to as the “License Agreement”). The terms of the License Agreement were visible to 5 users before they completed the upload. A true and correct copy of the Licensing Agreement
 6 is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

7       18. PLAINTIFF is informed and believes and thereon alleges that in 2008,
 8 DEFENDANT uploaded a great deal of images via DOBERMANRESQ.COM’S uploading
 9 page. Therefore, DEFENDANT entered into PLAINTIFF’S License Agreement allowing 10 PLAINTIFF to use the images that were uploaded on DOBERMANRESQ.COM.

11       19. Sadly, in or about November 2010, PLAINTIFF and DEFENDANT had a “falling 12 out.” DEFENDANT elected a new board who accused PLAINTIFF of stealing images from 13 DEFENDANT.

14       20. DEFENDANT’S new board did not recognize the agreement made between Ms.
 15 Gilbert and PLAINTIFF or the years of hard work PLAINTIFF had put into helping both 16 websites serve the Doberman rescue community. Thus, PLAINTIFF cut all ties with 17 DEFENDANT. However, DEFENDANT continued to use the images and stories created by 18 PLAINTIFF without his consent or permission.

19       21. DEFENDANT has since issued several Takedown Notices under the Digital
 20 Millennium Copyright Act to PLAINTIFF, regarding the photographs and stories of almost one
 21 hundred Dobermans depicted on DOBERMANRESQ.COM that are affiliated with 22 DEFENDANT. This is despite the fact that DEFENDANT entered into multiple valid licensing
 23 agreements which allowed PLAINTIFF to use the images that were the subject of multiple 24 Takedown notices. True and correct copies of the “Takedown Notices” are attached hereto as 25 Exhibit “C.”

26       22. After complying with the Takedown Notices, PLAINTIFF began receiving 27 telephone calls from donors who informed him they were discontinuing their donations to 28 DOBERMANRESQ.COM due to the lack of images and stories.

23. Due to the dispute over the ownership of the pictures, PLAINTIFF filed a small claims action alleging that DEFENDANT had infringed on PLAINTIFF'S copyright claim. DEFENDANT thereafter removed PLAINTIFF'S copyright action to this Court and filed several counter-claims regarding the ownership of the disputed images.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 24. PLAINTIFF hereby realleges and incorporates herein by this reference Paragraphs
8 1 through 23, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.
9

9        25. This action arises under the Copyright Act of October 19, 1976, Title I
10 section 101, 17 U.S.C. section 501; this Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. section 1338.

11       26. PLAINTIFF is owner of the copyright of the disputed images due to creating,
12 altering and changing the disputed images to such an extent that PLAINTIFF is the original
13 author of the disputed images. Therefore, PLAINTIFF is entitled to copyright protection under 14 Title 17 of the United States Code section 102, et cetera.

15 27. The designs created by PLAINTIFF contain a large amount of material wholly 16 original with PLAINTIFF and is copyrightable subject matter under the laws of the United 17 States.

18       28. Since 2005, the disputed images have been published by PLAINTIFF and all
19 copies of it made by PLAINTIFF or under his authority or license have been published in strict 20 conformity with the provisions of all law governing copyright.

21        29. Since 2005, PLAINTIFF has been, and still is, the sole proprietor of all rights, title,
22 and interest in and to the copyright in the above entitled work.

23 | //

24 | //

25 | //

26 | //

27 | //

28 | //

1       30. Since 2010, DEFENDANT infringed PLAINTIFF'S copyright by (1) publishing
2 and placing the images and stories on its website despite the fact PLAINTIFF has a
3 copyrightable interest in these images and not requesting PLAINTIFF'S permission; (2)
4 preventing PLAINTIFF from using his copyrightable images through the fraudulent use of 5 Digital Millennium Copyright Takedown Notices; (3) by displaying PLAINTIFF'S images in 6 a way that harms PLAINTIFF and prevents PLAINTIFF from helping rescue Dobermans; (4)
7 and by refusing to pay any license fee to use PLAINTIFFS' images.

8 31. PLAINTIFF has notified DEFENDANT that it has infringed the copyright of 9 PLAINTIFF. DEFENDANT has continued to infringe the copyright.

10       32.    Because of DEFENDANT'S infringement, PLAINTIFF has suffered and continues
11 to suffer general and special damages and has been required to hire legal counsel to prosecute 12 this action all to his detriment in an amount greater than $25,000.00, the exact amount to be
13 determined at trial.

14 32. DEFENDANT has infringed and continues to infringe on PLAINTIFF'S
15 trademark, copyright and proprietary information, causing irreparable harm justifying injunctive
16 relief to restrain DEFENDANT from further harmful action.

17       33. The aforementioned acts of the defendant were willful, malicious, despicable and 18 fraudulent and entitle PLAINTIFF to punitive or exemplary damages, the amount to be
19 determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing)

22 34. PLAINTIFF hereby realleges and incorporates herein by this reference Paragraphs
23 1 through 33, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

24       35. Each and every contract carries an implied promise by the parties of good faith and 25 fair dealing, to wit: that neither party will do anything to unfairly interfere with the right of any 26 other party to receive the benefits of the contracts.

27 | //

28 | //

1       36. In or about 2006, PLAINTIFF reached an agreement with DEFENDANT'S
 2 chairperson, Angie Gilbert, regarding photographs and rescue stories related to DEFENDANT.
 3 Since PLAINTIFF had a superior website and time to maintain it, DEFENDANT and
 4 PLAINTIFF agreed that DEFENDANT would provide PLAINTIFF with information about
 5 rescued Dobermans. PLAINTIFF would transform the information into a thoughtful story,
 6 which he posted alongside a picture of the Doberman onto DOBERMANRESQ.COM.

7       37. During this time, DEFENDANT'S board and club members were made aware of
 8 the fact that DEFENDANT'S rescued Dobermans and their stories were listed on
 9 DOBERMANRESQ.COM and of the agreement in place with PLAINTIFF. They had no
 10 objection.

11       38. During 2008, the parties entered into the License Agreement whereby
 12 DEFENDANT granted PLAINTIFF an exclusive license to display certain images of Dobermans
 13 on DOBERMANRESQ.COM. This provision was a material term to the License Agreement. A
 14 true and correct copy of the License Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

15       39. Since that time, DEFENDANT has refused to honor the terms of the License
 16 Agreement by filing a lawsuit against PLAINTIFF, alleging that PLAINTIFF does not have a
 17 right to use the images which were the subject of the Licensing Agreement. This, despite the fact
 18 that PLAINTIFF and DEFENDANT entered into a valid written License Agreement and a valid
 19 oral agreement to post the disputed images on DOBERMANRESQ.COM. DEFENDANT was 20 aware of both these agreements at all relevant times.

21       40. PLAINTIFF has performed everything required of him under the written and oral 22 License Agreements.

23       41. DEFENDANT'S refusal to honor the License Agreement has adversely affected
 24 PLAINTIFF in an amount in excess of $25,000.00, the exact amount to be determined at the time
 25 of trial. Had PLAINTIFF known that DEFENDANT would not hold up its part of the Licensing
 26 Agreement, PLAINTIFF would not have entered into it in the first place.

27       ///

28       ///

1       42. DEFENDANT should be ordered by this Court to perform its duties under the
2 License Agreement. Thus, PLAINTIFF requests that this Court issue an injunction ordering
3 DEFENDANT to: (a) comply with the provisions of the License Agreement; and (b) enforce
4 the provisions of the License Agreement which allow PLAINTIFF to display the disputed
5 images on DOBERMANRESQ.COM.

6       43.     As a proximate result of DEFENDANT'S refusal to honor the License Agreement,
7 PLAINTIFF has been required to incur and will continue to incur attorneys' fees, costs and other
8 related expenses, all of which shall be established in an amount according to proof at the time
9 of trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Misrepresentation under 17 U.S.C. 512(f))

12 44. PLAINTIFF hereby realleges and incorporates herein by this reference Paragraphs
13 1through 43, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

14 45. In or about 2006, PLAINTIFF reached an agreement with DEFENDANT'S
15 chairperson, Angie Gilbert, regarding photographs and rescue stories related to DEFENDANT.
16 Since PLAINTIFF had a superior website and time to maintain it, DEFENDANT and
17 PLAINTIFF agreed that DEFENDANT would provide PLAINTIFF with information about
18 rescued Dobermans. PLAINTIFF would transform the information into a thoughtful story,
19 which he posted alongside a picture of the Doberman onto DOBERMANRESQ.COM.

20       46. During this time, DEFENDANT'S board and club members were made aware of
21 the fact that DEFENDANT'S rescued Dobermans and their stories were listed on
22 DOBERMANRESQ.COM and of the agreement in place with PLAINTIFF. They had no
23 objection.

24       47. During 2008, the parties entered into the License Agreement whereby
25 DEFENDANT granted PLAINTIFF an exclusive license to display certain images of Dobermans
26 on DOBERMANRESQ.COM. This provision was a material term to the Settlement Agreement.
27 A true and correct copy of the Licensing Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

28 | //

1       48. On or about July 15, 2011, DEFENDANT sent PLAINTIFF a Digital Millennium
2 Copyright Act (“DMCA”) Takedown Notice regarding the images DEFENDANT entered into
3 a License Agreement with PLAINTIFF as described above. A true and correct copy of the 4 Takedown Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit “C.”

5       49. On or about July 23, 2011, DEFENDANT sent PLAINTIFF another Digital
6 DMCA Takedown Notice regarding the images DEFENDANT entered into a License
7 Agreement with PLAINTIFF as described above. A true and correct copy of the Takedown
8 Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit “C.”

9       50. On or about September 9, 2011, DEFENDANT sent PLAINTIFF another Digital
10 DMCA Takedown Notice regarding the images DEFENDANT entered into a License
11 Agreement with PLAINTIFF as described above. A true and correct copy of the Takedown
12 Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit “C.”

13       51. Title 17 of the United States Code section 512(f) states that a party is guilty of a 14 misrepresentation if a person:

15           knowingly materially misrepresents under this section:

16           (1) that material or activity is infringing, or 17           (2) that material or activity was removed or disabled by mistake or 18           misidentification.

19       53. DEFENDANT knowingly misrepresented that PLAINTIFF’S use of the images
20 was an infringing activity and was in violation of DEFENDANT’S alleged copyright.
21 Specifically, DEFENDANT entered into a License Agreement that allowed PLAINTIFF to use
22 the disputed images on DOBERMANRESQ.COM. DEFENDANT was aware of this license
23 agreement at all times.

24       54. DEFENDANT’S director, Angie Gilbert, gave PLAINTIFF a license to use the 25 the images that are the subject of the DMCA Takedown Notices. DEFENDANT’S members
26 were aware of this agreement at all relevant times and never objected to it until DEFENDANT
27 wrongfully and fraudulently issued several DMCA Takedown Notices to PLAINTIFF.

28       ///

1 55. At the time DEFENDANT issued the DMCA Takedown Notices, DEFENDANT
2 knew that the images posted on DOBERMANRESQ.COM were not infringing due to the fact
3 DEFENDANT willfully and knowingly entered into a License Agreement with PLAINTIFF to 4 use the images. Despite this, DEFENDANT intentionally and wrongfully issued multiple
5 DMCA Takedown Notices to PLAINTIFF.

6       56.    DEFENDANT'S wrongful and fraudulent use of DMCA Takedown Notices forced 7 the disputed pictures, which are the subject of a valid License Agreement, to be removed from 8 DOBERMANRESQ.COM.   As a further result of DEFENDANT'S wrongful actions,
9 PLAINTIFF still cannot use any of the images.

10       57. As a direct and proximate result of DEFENDANT'S conduct, PLAINTIFF has 11 been required to incur and will continue to incur attorneys' fees, costs and other related 12 expenses, all of which shall be established in an amount according to proof at the time of trial.

13       58. By reason of DEFENDANT'S conduct, PLAINTIFF has been deprived of the use
14 of the images, could not run DOBERMANRESQ.COM properly, lost donations, and lost the 15 ability to help recuse Dobermans, a value of which exceeds $25,000.00 the exact amount to be 16 determined at the time of trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

18 | WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF prays as follows:

To Whom It May Concern:

This notice is to notify you that there is web content that infringes on our copyrights per the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, on a website that you are providing hosting services for. We appreciate your enforcement of copyright law and support of our rights in this matter. With this document, electronic or otherwise, you have actual knowledge of infringing activity. Choosing to ignore this DMCA request, even if you do not receive a USPS mailed copy, does not relieve you of your obligation to stop infringing activity, otherwise any safe-haven protection anticipated by the DMCA will not apply. If you have any questions, contact your legal counsel.

The website owner has made intentional efforts to disguise the different pages from our view, than what the public sees. When the website is viewed on computers with our IP address, the pages that are displayed are not the same as the pages viewed from any other computer. This is an intentional attempt to deceive the accuser (ADPC), and to continue to engage in infringing activity. This circumvents the intent of the DMCA. You have actual knowledge of this deception, and have the obligation to assure that it does not continue.

Please do the following:

- 1) Reply to the Complainant (ADPC) that this notification has been received, within 24 hours.
- 3) Disable access to the infringing material or the customer's account until the customer removes the infringing material;

NOTICE: There is currently copyright infringement litigation in the Ninth Federal District Court, Southern District (CASE NO: 11CV1329 BTM POR) over the Copyrighted Material being claimed under this DMCA take-down notice. ### Identification of Copyrighted Work

The copyrighted materials at issue are images of dogs and graphics that are composed of images of dogs that appear on www.dobermanresq.com. Some of the infringing material is as follows:

DMCA Complaint

Digital Millennium Copyright Act

<http://dobermanresq.com/health/cpr.php> Image of dog

Doberman News

<http://www.dobermanresq.com/news/> Image of dog on newspaper

Dobermans in Local News

<http://www.dobermanresq.com/news/local.php> Image of dog on newspaper

NOTE: The page <http://www.dobermanresq.com/rescue/gallery/> has previously been identified as containing infringing material with a previous DMCA takedown request at another hosting service. The website owner has blocked access to this page by creating a "restricted" access gateway and admitting that this page has been moved. This does not change the fact that displaying images to anyone, whether restricted access or not, is still considered infringing activity. It is absolutely necessary to know if any of the images contained in the "members only" gallery page are also being displayed. Otherwise, the assumption is that the website owner is engaging in infringing activity. See below for the images at issue.

DMCA Complaint

Digital Millennium Copyright Act

Touching Tales. Stories of Love and Adoption...

Our gallery has moved to the Members Only section of the website. Our members can follow the stories from rescue to adoption there from now on. Thank you for being a part of our ResQ family.

<http://www.dobermanresq.com/rescue/gallery/>

These are examples and are not necessarily a complete list of all alleged violations. We require that all infringing images be removed from the website in question and the onus is on the infringer to locate and remove all copyright violations of ADPC's intellectual property.

EXHIBIT "B"

Mandatory Settlement Conference - Exhibit Handout

The images in this exhibit are from Fry's initial disclosure documents and from previously watermarked and published images in Aztec's archives.

The images featured below are a sample of the photos that have been provided by Fry as initial disclosure documents.

1. All Fry's initial disclosure documents have the copyright ownership watermark of DobermanresQ. It is not clear whether it is DobermanresQ.com, or Dobermanresq Inc., a separate business entity.
2. Fox Network Systems filed the original lawsuit over use of copyrighted images.
3. Fry has not produced any evidence of any copyrights owned by Fox Network Systems.
4. The matching images have been taken directly from the archives of the Aztec website.
5. The images from the Aztec archives were originally watermarked by Fry, when he was a volunteer webmaster.
6. The number of matching images with both watermarks could be in the hundreds.

The images in this exhibit are from Fry's initial disclosure documents and from previously

The images identified below were created and provided by Bryan Weaver or Pamela J. Scholefield specifically for the purposes of promoting dogs in Aztec's rescue program. The watermark on each image falsely identifies the copyright owner. These images were created by volunteer members working within the scope of the ADPC rescue program, specifically for, and only for the Aztec Doberman rescue program. No rights, licenses or ownership of these images has been granted to anyone other than ADPC.
